Stainless Steel Gn Pan 1/6 4” Depth

 395

This Stainless Steel GN Pan are used as durable food holders for food service purpose. They are perfect for holding food, condiments, or any other eatery items. They can also be used as a simple roast pan in the oven, a food pan of the chafing dish or food warmer, tray of the bain marie and so on. The particularly neat feature of this GN pan is that it has an anti-jam ridge that runs along all four sides, so that it stack neatly when you've more than one, without jamming. The Stainless Steel GN Pans are actually made in a number of standard sizes, standard depths, and different materials, so that they all act as a roughly interchangeable set.
